

Co-funded by the European Union

ERASMUS+ Faculty Exchange and Teaching Opportunity at the University of Kazimierz Wielki, Bydgoszcz, Poland

The Department of Educational Leadership at Kansas State University seeks applicants from tenure track or tenured faculty in the Kansas State University College of Education to teach in a 5-day faculty exchange at Kazimierz Wielki University in Bydgoszcz, Poland. A stipend covering the costs of travel and stay will be provided to one chosen applicant.

Applicants are required to submit:

- A letter of motivation
- Curriculum Vitae
- Teaching program

Applicants will be evaluated based on a standardized evaluation form indicating preferred qualifications.

Please send applicant materials to Dr. Royce Ann Collins, Chair of the Department of Educational Leadership at the College of Education at Kansas State University, (racollin@ksu.edu) no later than January 21, 2025.

Sincerely,

Dr. Royce Ann Collins
Professor and Chair, Department of Educational Leadership
Elvon Skeen Endowed Chair in Education